PERMISSION SLIPS AND RELEASE FORMS: Please turn them in to me as soon as possible.

BEHAVIOR: All school policies and procedures; and instructions by the band director will be followed at all times.

WHAT TO WEAR: Wear very nice clothes to perform your instrumental events. The judge will be looking at you. Twirlers: Do not forget your uniforms. You may wear nice looking casual clothes that are appropriate for the weather at other times.

EQUIPMENT: Don't forget your band instrument, baton, music, extra reeds, valve oil, slide oil, drum sticks, mallets, auxiliary percussion equipment, etc. It is your responsibility to get all your equipment loaded.

LUGGAGE: Please limit your luggage to: one suitcase (that you can carry), one hanging bag, one carry on, and your band instrument and/or baton.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS: If you bring audio devices, you must use headphones only with these items. Listen carefully during all meetings for more special instructions.

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE INSTRUCTIONS: Twirlers please do not forget your music (ie. CD's, CD players, ipods etc.) . Also, everyone must bring original copies of your music and the judge's score. All music must be numbered and labeled with Bullard High School Band on the front.

PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE: Attached is your performance schedule for the UIL State Office. Don't lose it! It will have your performance time, Judge number and name and the location and room for your event. Please get to your performance area early to check in with monitor. Instrumental events must give original music to monitor for the judge.

Good luck at contest!!!
